CRICED The Center for Research on International Cooperation in Educational Development

University of Tsukuba is the only university member in Japan for the Southeast Asian Ministers of Education Organization (SEAMEO)*.

*SEAMEO is a regional intergovernmental organization established in 1965 among governments of Southeast Asian countries to promote regional cooperation in education, science and culture in the region.

CRICED has a Khon Kaen Office in the premises of KKKU's Institute for Research and Development in Teaching Profession (IRDTP) for ASEAN.

KKU acts as a logistic hub of the Greater Mekong Sub-region (GMS) countries. We have been collaborating using the geographical advantage to further develop Japanese education methods in ASEAN countries.
