

KYOTO UNIVERSITY

มหาวิทยาลัยเกียวโต

Founded in 1897, Kyoto University is the second oldest national university in Japan. Kyoto University is acknowledged as one of the most accomplished research-oriented universities in Asia. Kyoto University states its mission to sustain and develop its historical commitment to academic freedom and to pursue harmonious coexistence within human and ecological communities on this planet. It is dedicated to providing a free-thinking academic environment with a global perspective.

Kyoto University ASEAN Center

Kyoto University has been actively involved in research and educational activities in the ASEAN region for many years.

Located in central Bangkok, Thailand, the ASEAN Center acts as a focal point to support Kyoto University's research and educational partnerships across the ASEAN region.

The ASEAN Center will explore new horizons in advanced sciences through ASEAN and Kyoto University's relationships aiming to enrich ASEAN's potential and to produce a global academic center of excellence.

Kyoto University ASEAN Center

Room. 3925, 9 FL, BB Building, 54,
Sukhumvit 21 (Asoke), Klongtoey-Nua,
Wattana, Bangkok 10100, Thailand
Tel: 02-664-0060
email: staff-asean@mail2.adm.kyoto-u.ac.jp

At a Glance

22,600 Students (2,900 International Students)

10 Faculties, 18 Graduate Schools

12 Research Institutes, 26 Centers & Other organizations

11 Nobel Laureates, 5 Lasker Award winners, 2 Fields Medalists, 1 Gauss Prize winner, 1 Chern Medalist

On-site Laboratories in Thailand

- Kyoto University On-site Laboratory at Mahidol University for Educational and Research Collaboration in Environmental Studies
- Smart Materials Research Center: Vidyasirimedhi Institute of Science and Technology (VISTEC), Thailand

Academic Programs

- Kyoto University International Undergraduate Program (Kyoto iUP)
Kyoto iUP is a bilingual program which will take 4.5 years comprising with 6 months preparatory course followed by 4 years of undergraduate study. No requirement for Japanese skill at the outset. At the 1st-2nd years, students will study in English and at the 3rd-4th years will study in Japanese.

- English-taught degree programs
Kyoto University offers a wide range of degree programs for international students which are conducted entirely in English. Students with no Japanese language ability can study for degrees while taking advantage of the University's world-class research facilities and education.

CSEAS Bangkok Liaison Office

12CD, GP Grande Tower, 55, soi 23,
Sukhumvit Road, Bangkok 10110, Thailand
Tel: + 66-(0) 2-664-3619
Fax: + 66-(0) 2-664-3618

